Office of the Governor

Whereas, Edith Hammer was born March 18, 1923, at Volga, South Dakota, and was the second oldest of 12 children; and,

Whereas, Birthdays commemorate the first day of our lives, and we celebrate the birthdays of those we love as we recognize the joys and sorrows we have shared, the strength we have gained from the obstacles and hardships we have conquered, and the small daily pleasures life offers; and,

Whereas, Edith married Orville Eide on November 27, 1941, and to that union six children were born, and presented them with 17 grandchildren and 13 great grandchildren; and,

Whereas, Edith will observe her 80th Birthday with all the good wishes, fanfare, and celebration such a milestone warrants, as her friends and relatives gather to honor her and celebrate her life and the camaraderie of the day; and it is fitting and proper for the Governor to make note of this milestone in the life of a woman who has lived an exemplary life for all to emulate:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim March 22, 2003, as
